

1st European EIF Job Market in Finance and Accounting
December 20, 2006

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Europlace Institute of Finance (EIF) and HEC School of Management Paris organize the 1st European Job Market in Finance and Accounting, in collaboration with Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration, Università Luigi Bocconi, ESADE, RSM Erasmus University, Copenhagen Business School.

All fields of Finance and Accounting are concerned including quantitative finance, corporate finance, behavioral finance, financial accounting, management accounting and related fields.

This Job Market will give the opportunity to young international researchers in Finance and/or in Accounting to present their work (plenary presentations or posters), and will also allow potential applicants and academic (as well as non academic) recruiters to organize individual interviews. The participants will also network during round table meetings and conferences.

The deadline for submission is October 30, 2006.

We bring your attention that the annual Paris finance international meeting, organized by the French Finance Association (AFFI) and EUROFIDAI, will take place on December 18-19th 2006 at BNP Paribas (5 avenue Kléber - 75116 Paris, France). For registration and more details, see the following link: <http://www.affi.asso.fr/december2006us.html>
